

Bankers' Convention.

A convention composed of representatives of nearly forty of the Banks of our State met in this city on the 5th. Mr. E. L. Dixson, of Jacksonville, was called to the Chair, and J. P. McGraw, of Portage City, acted as Secretary.

The object of establishing a central conference system in Wisconsin was discussed, and a resolution was passed declaring it to be inexpedient to inaugurate such a system at present.

The following resolution was passed:

Resolved, That we will meet with three or four Banks of circulation at regular intervals and in accessible points where no legitimate banking business can be done, and that we will discourage such banks by all proper means.

A resolution was also passed in favor of forming a permanent association for mutual co-operation, and a Committee was appointed for the purpose of preparing a plan for such organization, and also for preparing sundry amendments to the Banking Law for the more perfect working of the system.

The Committee consists of the following persons:

N. B. VAN SICKLE, N. L. LEX, A. FISCH, Jr., A. L. FISCH, and SAM'LL MARSHALL.

THAT FAIR AGAIN.—The Milwaukee Sentinel again publishes that May 1, Mr. Moore's "Fair" was a success, and it is to be regretted that it doesn't cross the border of Portage City and bring Portage into the fold. The next Monday in June, and draw up a ticket to be voted for on the east side of the river, and moving by the provisions of the Banking Act that the west side had not in the election, the polls were not open on the west side of the Red river, he says, there were two places of voting, and the ticket—Democratic, of course, and the only one in the County, was composed of ten candidates, and was held at the hotel of Mr. Joseph Versoer was a half mile from the east side—the only one of the election precincts, and had never been open. To "Delhi" that the telegraphic communication between Agassiz and Caledon had been cut off; and that the banks had run out of the money, and that the bank had been closed.

Mr. Baldwin from Peoria on Saturday, was placed in possession of the seal of the election, and the ballot boxes were turned over to him.

Mr. Baldwin, a Democrat himself, was present at the election, and Joseph Versoer was a half mile from the east side—the only one of the election precincts, and had never been open.
